

WAY TOWARDS CONTEMPORARY ART

UTTKARSHA SHEKHAR
cityfirstindia@gmail.com

scope of contemporary sculpture from the abstract and the minimal to the popular, making socio-political commentary that is contemplative and thought-provoking.

To examine the wide-ranging narratives of the art of sculpture, Palette Art Gallery, a contemporary art space established by Rohit Gandhi and Rahul Khanna in New Delhi in 2001, announces its forthcoming exhibition from November 29 to December 6, at Bikaner House, New Delhi. 18 Dimensions – a show dedicated to sculptures underlining the works by 18 contemporary artists, who have made a significant impact on the Indian and Global art landscape. This exhibition is an effort to showcase a broad

The city has opened mobility from the studios of Arunkumar HG, Ashlesh Shah, Gigi Scaria, G. R. Iranna, L. N. Tallur, Narayan Biswas, Mrinalini Mukherjee, Manjunath Kamath, Pooja Iranna, Himmat Shah, Jagannath Panda, Rajesh Ram, Riyas Komu, Sangam Vankhade, Sumedh R, Subodh Gupta, Sudarshan Shetty, Valay Shende, Vibha Galhotra and Vipul Kumar. The exhibition also studies their involvement with the influences probing the limits and possibilities inherent in a sculpture's inescapable three-dimensional physicality.

Shalini Passi

Payal Sen

Vikram Baidyanath and Aparna Behl

Rohit Gandhi

Leena Malhotra, Rahul Khanna and Rohit Gandhi with guests

Kanchan

Amazing Sculpture

Piyali Dasgupta and Jayasri Burman

Siddharth Tytler with friend

—PHOTOS BY MANOJ KESHARWANI